

Pocomoke Indian Nation, Inc.

2026 Public Opportunities to Connect the Past and the Present with Tradition Bearers (Descendants and Volunteers)

"Maryland's Story is America's Story"

Wednesday, January 21, 4:00 PM - 5:30 PM VIRTUAL Panel Presentation, Relational Stewardship Series Pathways to Climate Resilience and Healthy Ecosystems. Sponsored by University of Maryland Extension and featuring Norris Howard Jr as one of three panelists - Part 3 in the Relational Stewardship Speaker Series: Agroforestry- Ecological mutual aid and food sovereignty | College of Agriculture & Natural Resources at UMD

Friday, February 6, 6:00 PM - Film screening of a selection of short documentaries, highlighting projects supported by Maryland State Arts Council, include the 2024 Heritage Award for Place, Pocomoke Homelands. The snow date for this event is Saturday, 2/7. Location: Wide Angle Youth Media, 2507 N. Howard Street, Ste 100, Baltimore, MD 21218 Film Series - Folklife Art - Wide Angle Youth Media

[Private Event] Tuesday, February 17, at 6:30 PM - Rockawalkin Ruritan Community Service Organization, Dinner Meeting followed by a display and presentation from the Pocomoke Indian Nation, Inc,

Saturday, February 21, 10:00AM – 4:00 PM – MD 250- Native American Heritage and Artifact Day, with displays, demonstrations and presentation illuminating, Pocomoke Indian Nation's History, Lifeways and Resources within their Homelands and Sphere of Influence. Location - Waterfowl Festival Building, 40 South Harrison Street Easton, MD, [\[map\]](#) Native American Heritage and Artifact Day — Talbot 250

Saturday, April 11, 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM - MD 250 - Land, Legacy and Freedom: Native American Strength Shapes a Nation, a day long outdoor event with Native American tribal descendants and interpreters at Linchester Mill. Location - 3390 Linchester Rd, Preston, MD 21655

Saturday, April 25, 10AM – 5 PM – Chicone Village Day - Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways at Handsell - 4837 Indiantown Rd Vienna, MD 21869. The Nanticokes and the Chicone Village Project « Restore Handsell

MAY

Sunday, May 24, 3PM – The Pocomoke Elders will be on hand to display local mapping and questions about the history of the Pocomoke Paramountcy to expand on the 3 PM lecture by Drew Shuptar – Rayvis. $15 donation includes free tours of Pemberton Hall at 1 PM. Event sponsored by Preservation Trust of Wicomico.

		Lecture by Drew Shuptar-Rayvis (Pekatawas MakataweU "Black Corn" indigenous Pocomoke Heritage)
May 24th 3:00 pm	Outdoor Amphitheater at Pemberton Hall
Native American Interpreter from the Colonial period, Cultural Ambassador of the Pocomoke Indian Nation, MD		$15.00 Donation Children Free
		Pemberton Hall Open for Tours 1pm - 2:30 pm Preservation Trust of Wicomico, Inc.
For more information contact: Aleta Davis 443-359-9496

Pocomoke Indian Nation, Inc.

2026 Public Opportunities to Connect the Past and the Present with Tradition Bearers (Descendants and Volunteers)

"Maryland's Story is America's Story"

MAY

Saturday, May 30- Sunday May 31, - Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to provide interpretation of the Native Village Exhibit within the Delmarva Discovery Museum,

JUNE

Saturday, June 6, 10 AM – 2 PM - Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways at Furnace Town Historic Site, 3816 Old Furnace Road, Snow Hill, MD, 21863 Calendar — Furnace Town Historic Site

Photo credits - John Brinton and Maryland State Arts Council 2024, MSAC.org

Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation Demonstrate* Skills & Lifeways of their Homelands, Focusing on the Time of Contact.

Interactive with something for all ages to see and do!

Cost Varies by Location. Many locations are no cost. Donations Appreciated

For the latest information, see www.pocomokeindiannation.org

*Topics vary due to weather conditions and available resources

Wednesday, June 17, 7 PM, - Premiere screening of The Native Shore, the ninth documentary film of the Barrier Islands Center, produced with filmmaker and director Jim Spione. Location - Roseland Theatre - Onancock, VA Free and no tickets required.

[Private Event] June 22-26 - Pocomoke Tradition Bearers will present cultural lifeways as part of the TIME TRAVELERS History Day Camp at Teackle Mansion in Princess Anne. Application and more information - Somerset County Historical Society

[Private Event] June 23 - Pocomoke Tradition Bearers will present training to Maryland educators at an in-service under the direction of Towson University and Digging Deeper Educational Consulting.

Saturday, June 27, 10 AM -2 PM – Pocomoke River State Park, Shad Landing Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways, including burning a dugout canoe (weather permitting). 3461 Worchester Highway, Snow Hill MD 21863

JULY

~~POSTPONED Saturday, July 25, 10 AM – 2 PM – Janes Island State Park Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways at 26280 Alfred J. Lawson Drive, Crisfield, MD 21817~~

AUGUST

Saturday, August 29, 10 AM – 5 PM – Nanticoke River Jamboree - "Battle of Vienna." Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways at 4837 Indiantown Rd, Vienna, MD 21869

Fall – Please check back for updates

Saturday, October 10, 10 AM – 3 PM, 5th Annual Crisfield Heritage Festival Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways, with a focus on Annemessex, a subtribe of the Pocomoke. New location - West Main Street down by the waterfront in Crisfield

Sunday, October 11, Rackcliffe House Colonial Harvest Festival Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways at 11800 Marsh View Lane Behind the Assateague Island Visitor Center, Berlin, MD 21811

Saturday, November 7, Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum Oyster Fest Tradition Bearers of the Pocomoke Indian Nation will be on hand to present and demonstrate cultural lifeways at 213 N Talbot St, St Michaels, MD 21663,

